RE: Docket No. FV05-929-610 REVIEW, Federal Register:
July 12, 2005 (Volume 70, Number 132)

Dear Mr. Clayton:

We have a small cranberry farm in Oregon and are requesting that the marketing order be rescinded. The last two were devastating for us and really don't seem to solve the problem of oversupply at all. Because of the politics of business, the only ones who seem to benefit are the handlers, and none of the benefits ever trickle down to the actual farmers.

At the very least, please exempt Oregon from the marketing order. We have very high quality fruit that is much sought after, and we also grow a relatively small amount and have expanded very slowly, feeling that we are not the ones responsible for any surplus in the market.

Thank you for considering our request.

Sincerely,

Dan Tobiska
